Many democrats were members of the KKK (not all, but many were)

The Democrats were primarily a party of racists, they condoned slavery, started the civil war, were opposed to 'reconstruction' after the civil war, imposed segregation, and fought against civil rights

The 'KKK' was founded in 1865

- KKK = Ku Klux Klan
- Began after the Civil War
- Created by Confederate veterans
- Many Democrats were active members

1865 - 1965
Re-establishment of white supremacy

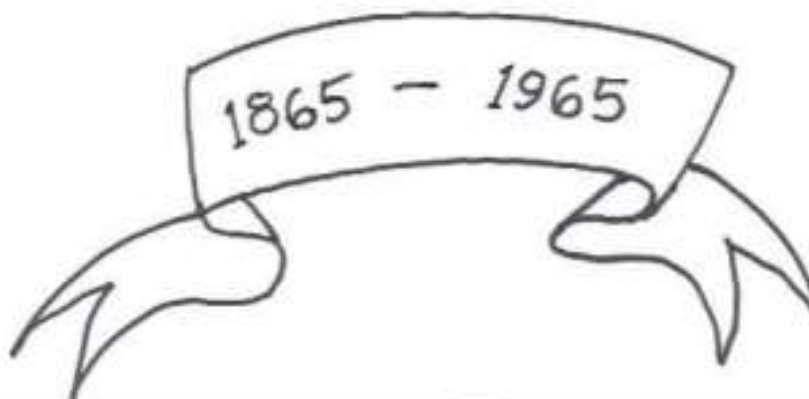

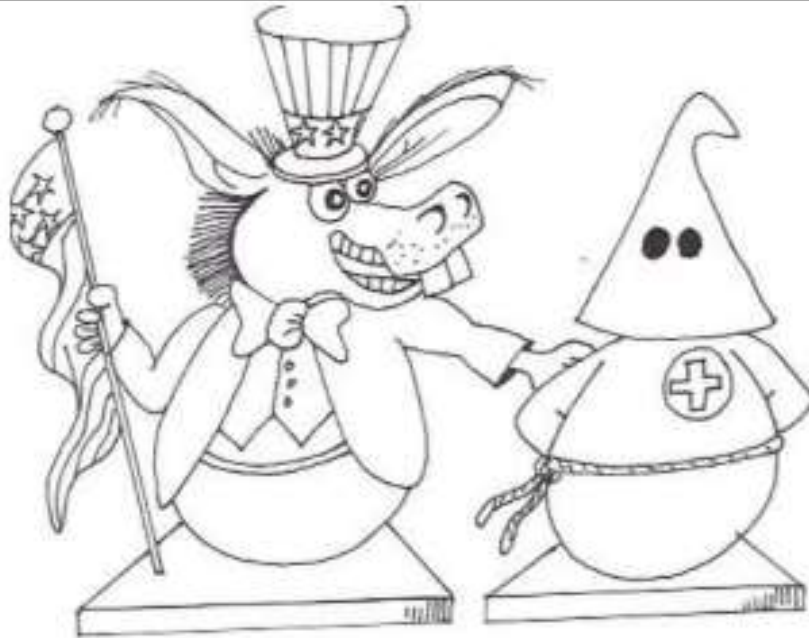

FUN FACTS!

- Democrats favored the expulsion of the American Indians (after the war of 1846)
- In 1857 the Supreme Court ruled slaves were not citizens under "Dred Scott vs. Sandford" (7 democrats voted in favor and 2 republicans were opposed)
- The Civil War (1861 - 1865) was bloody and Abraham Lincoln was the first Republican President who fought to end slavery (and lost his life)
- 1915 - Silent Movie - "The Birth of a Nation" (adapted from the 1905 novel "The Clansman"). Very controversial. Screened in the White House by Democratic President Woodrow Wilson. The KKK was portrayed as a heroic, white supremacist force necessary to save America.

Sometimes I wish I was a man so that I might better understand you

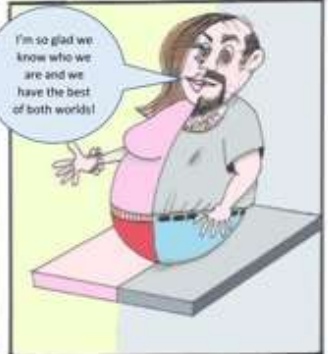

Not me! I could never be a woman

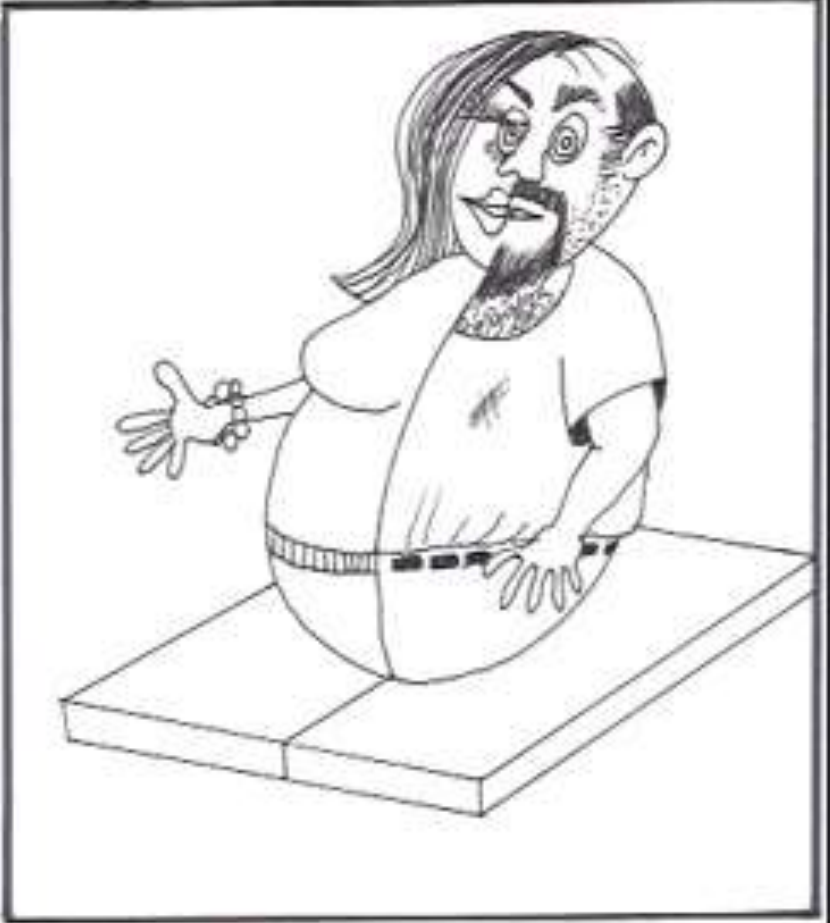

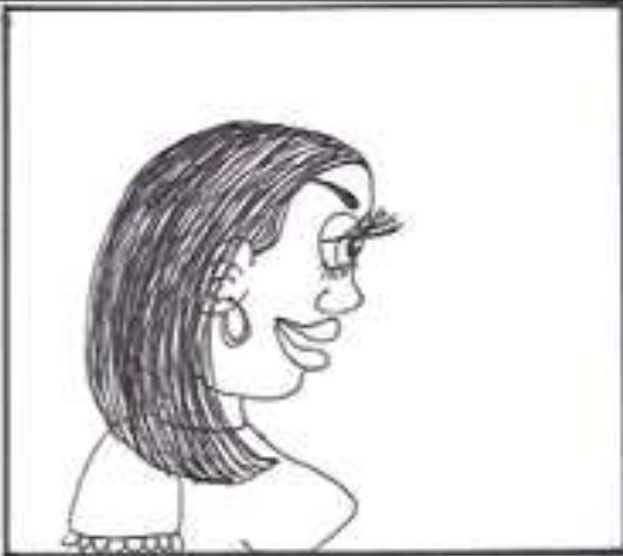

The world is so confused and it's creating 'new genders' to conform to what society thinks will replace just the 2 limited sexes. I'm so glad we know who we are!

I'm so glad we know who we are and we have the best of both worlds!
